Are you an artist just starting out? Are you interested in exhibiting your artwork, but don't quite know where to begin? Generating excitement about one's artwork is one of the many struggles of being an exhibiting artist. The City of Brea Art Gallery is introducing a brand-new series of seminars for local artists who are looking for guidance on how to jumpstart their burgeoning careers.

Examining the intricacies of being an artist, Daryl Gortner will share helpful tools and first-hand knowledge on how she was able to gain momentum in her artistic career. Daryl will share her thoughts on what it takes to create a desired body of work and find your niche in the supply and demand of the art world.

During this seminar, Daryl will cover: creating a solid body of work, devising a successful marketing plan, finding your niche in the art market, and submitting your work into exhibits. Be sure and bring your portfolio as Daryl will also be making portfolio recommendations. Artists of all skill levels ages 14 and up are welcome to attend!
