

Pastel Portrait Workshop
with Salem Cade

Saturday, June 28th from 10:00am to 3:30pm

City of Brea Art Gallery

cost: $75.00 fee (+ materials list)

Ages 14 and up

Salem Cade received her Master of Fine Arts in painting and drawing from Laguna College of Art & Design. She teaches at Mt. San Jacinto College and offers private instruction for children and adults. Salem's current body of work explores figurative and still life subjects in oil, pastel and charcoal. In this workshop, Salem will not only teach you how to use pastels, but how to accurately draw the human face by using correct proportions and incorporating vivid color into all of your drawings. This class will show you how to utilize this fun and versatile medium while creating a beautiful finished portrait using both hard and soft chalk pastels.

To register, stop by the City of Brea Art Gallery or call (714) 990-7731 to register with a credit card.

A limited number of seats are available and it is sure to fill up fast, so reserve your spot today!

See the supply list below for required materials.

Supply List of Required Items for the Pastel Workshop:

- Set of Chalk pastels
- Set of Pastel pencils (ex: Stabilo CarbOthello)
- 1 sheet of Canson Mi Tientes Ivory White paper
 - Sketch book or sketching paper
 - Kneaded Eraser
 - Plastic Eraser
 - 2B Pencil
 - White artist tape
 - Drawing board
- Soft chalk pastels (optional)

Sorry, no refunds 72 hours prior to start of class.

City of Brea Art Gallery • Civic & Cultural Center • 1 Civic Center Circle • Brea, CA 92821 • (714) 990-7731 phone www.breagallery.com • www.facebook.com/breaartgallery • breagallery@cityofbrea.net

(For more info about the instructor, visit www.salemcade.com)