Bank Robbery and Police Pursuit

Brea, Calif. - On July 28, 2023, at approximately 8:45 am, Brea Police Department officers were notified of a possible armed bank robbery in progress at a Wells Fargo Bank branch in the 200-block of South State College Blvd.

Brea officers located the suspects as they were leaving the scene, and the suspects led officers on a pursuit southbound on the 57 Freeway into Anaheim.

The suspects abandoned their car near State College and Gene Autry Way in the City of Anaheim and fled into a nearby buildings. Brea and Anaheim police officers set up a perimeter in the area with the assistance of helicopter crews from the Orange County Sheriff Department and Anaheim Police Department.

The Anaheim Police Department is conducting a search of buildings in the area for the outstanding suspects.

Nobody was injured during the robbery.

This is an ongoing investigation and search. As such, no additional information will be released at this time.

Future updates will be provided through the Brea Police Department's social media pages.
